

MISCELLANEOUS LOCAL NEWS.

Excitement Caused by a Rabid Dog.

A rabid dog created considerable excitement yesterday afternoon among residents in the northwest part of the city. At No. 469 West Fullerton avenue J. M. Armstrong keeps a grocery store. About 3 o'clock a large white hunting dog with brown spots suddenly appeared in the vicinity and bit one of Mr. Armstrong's dogs, a small terrier. The latter was killed by Officer Gordon of the Twenty-seventh Precinct Station. Mr. Armstrong armed himself and pursued the mad-dog, which ran west, taking refuge in the barn of Paul Paulson, No. 160 Linden avenue. Many shots were fired at the animal but none took effect. Escaping from the barn it ran under the barn of Gus Bloberg, No. 1159 Maplewood avenue, where police officers killed it. So far as known no one was bitten.

World's Fair Through a Stereopticon.

Lorado Taft will discuss "Sculpture and Sculptors of America" at the entertainment given by the Chicago Press club at Central Music Hall tonight, giving special attention to the sculptural decorations at the World's Fair and illustrating by means of stereopticon views. President Palmer will deliver a short address and the occasion will be enlivened by music from the Schumann Quartet and the inimitable Ben King. The great success of the first entertainment in this series is the best token of an entertaining and profitable evening at this the second.

Charges Corning with False Pretenses.

E. B. Corning, who obtained some notoriety through his connection with Dr. Cyrus Teed at the time of the latter's arrest a few months ago, was arrested by Detectives O'Malley and Tobin yesterday, charged with obtaining goods by false pretenses. J. Gabrielson, the complainant, sold Corning a stock of groceries at No. 109 North Paulina street for $425. A check for $400 was given and the $25 paid in cash. When Gabrielson presented the check for payment, he says, he found that Corning had only $1 to his credit in the bank. When Gabrielson returned to his store, he says, he found that the stock of groceries had been removed by Corning.

John C. Breckel Falls Dead.

A man, supposed to be John C. Breckel from papers found in his possession, fell dead in front of No. 381 La Salle avenue at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Dr. Weinermark, who was near by, examined the man, but did not arrive at the cause of his death. The East Chicago patrol wagon took the body to Sigmund's morgue, on West Chicago avenue. It is believed that the dead man lived in Pennsylvania. He was about 26 years old, slim build, and had dark hair. His face was clean shaven. He wore a black suit and a white shirt. A silver watch and $1.85 were found in his pockets.

Says He Is Minus $3,600.

Hanford Hinkson, a cattle dealer from Glenwood, Ia., arrived in Chicago last Monday. Wednesday afternoon he was found lying on the sidewalk at Halsted and Adams streets. He was removed to the Desplaines Street Station, where he was kept until yesterday morning. When arraigned before Justice Woodman to answer to a charge of disorderly conduct he said that when he left his boarding-house Wednesday morning he had $3,600, and when he awoke at the police station he discovered that his money was gone. He says that he does not remember with whom or where he was. Two officers will investigate the matter.

Toomey Held for the Assault.

Michael Toomey, who a few nights ago accused John Cavanaugh, a horseshoer, of robbing him and caused the latter's arrest, was himself held to the Criminal Court by Justice Lyon yesterday morning in bonds of $1,000 on a charge of robbery. While Officer Winnerholm was walking on Van Buren street he saw Cavanaugh beating Toomey and the latter claimed that he was being robbed. Upon the hearing of the case it was clearly proven that Toomey was the would-be robber and that Cavanaugh had overpowered him.

Effort to Burn Down a Cigar Store.

A determined effort to burn down the cigar store of C. S. White, No. 614 Sixty-third street, was discovered and frustrated at an early hour yesterday morning. An officer who happened to be passing saw flames issuing from the side and promptly called the department, which extinguished the fire before it had gained any great headway. An investigation showed that a portion of the side of the house had been torn away by some person, who entered the basement of the building and saturating it with kerosene oil applied a match.

William Lewis Chosen Delegate.

At a special meeting last night of the Stereotypers' Union William Lewis was unanimously elected delegate to the International Typographical convention. He has been foreman of the Times stereotyping rooms for twenty-five years, is known all over the United States as the "father of stereotyping in America" and as the inventor of most of the important appliances now in use in stereotyping machinery.

Boyne Had the Check Cashed.

The Stock-Yards police are looking for Joseph Boyne, who is wanted for forgery. Boyne was employed by Michael Bracker of Forty-third and Halsted streets, and Wednesday secured a check for a small amount payable to his employer. He forged his employer's name to the check and had it cashed by a saloonkeeper. The saloonkeeper discovered the matter when he went to deposit the check. Boyne has not been seen since.

Special Musical Service at Trinity.

The suppled choir of Trinity Church, Twenty-sixth street and Michigan avenue, will render Gaul's Passion Service complete at a special musical service tonight at 8 o'clock. The service consists of six parts, between each of which a short prayer will be said. This is the same music that has been given in parts on the six Sunday evenings of Lent. The doors will open at 7:30 and no tickets of admission are to be circulated.

Recovered Damages from the Contractor.

In Judge Stein's court yesterday afternoon the jury in the case of Franz Bollin against Frederick Koehler gave a verdict for the plaintiff for $500. Bollin sued for $15,000 damages for injuries received by being caught under a falling wall. He was employed by the defendant at the time and was engaged shoveling dirt from a pit. Carelessness was argued as ground for damages.

Give Their Annual Concert.

The Glee and Banjo clubs of the Evanston Township High School gave their annual concert in the Evanston High School Building last night. They were greeted by a large audience, and the varied program was well received.

Former Detroit Man Commits Suicide.

TACOMA, Wash., March 30.—Ludwig A. Klein, formerly of Detroit, Mich., committed suicide at the Everett Hotel today by jumping into Green River. He had been on a protracted spree. Klein is said to have wealthy relatives in Detroit.

St. Louis and Galveston Limited.

On Sunday, April 2, a new fast train will be put in service between St. Louis and Galveston over the St. Louis and San Francisco and Santa Fé route. This train will be of Pullman vestibule cars throughout and will carry the only line of dining cars in the State of Texas. The train leaves St. Louis Union Depot at 9:30 every night, arriving at Fort Smith 12:15 noon, Paris, 5:50 p. m.; Dallas, 9:40 p. m.; Houston, 10:15 a. m.; Galveston, 10:30 a. m., giving the fastest time and the highest class of service into Texas. For tickets, etc., apply at No. 212 Clark street, Chicago.

"Go to the Gulf, Thou Northman."

A special excursion to that famed spot, North Galveston, Texas, will leave Chicago April 5th. Remarkable inducements are offered. For particulars apply to D. D. Whitney, Agt., 301 Title and Trust Bldg., Chicago.

A Special Excursion to the Gulf Country.

An excursion for North Galveston, Tex., will leave Chicago April 18, 1893. Liberal inducements are offered. For particulars address Mr. D. D. Whitney, 301 Title and Trust Building, Agent, Chicago.

From and after April 1 the city ticket office of "The Nickel Plate," the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad, will be located at No. 159 Clark street.

Tickets to all points East. Sleeping car accommodations reserved for any future date.

If you wake in the morning with a bitter taste in the mouth, coated tongue, perhaps headache, your liver is torpid. You need Carter's Little Liver Pills.

Don't hesitate. You know the old saying, "He who hesitates is lost." When you know you are right, don't hesitate to say it. When you go to buy a bottle of Carter's Little Liver Pills don't hesitate to say you want "C-a-r-t-e-r-s." Demand the genuine Carter's Little Liver Pills.